The boarding of animals is subject to Article 3.1 (3.1-796.83:1 et seq.) Of Chapter 27.4 of Title 3.1. If your animal becomes ill or injured while in the custody of the boarding establishment, the boarding establishment shall provide the animal with emergency veterinary treatment for the illness or injury. The consumer shall bear the reasonable and necessary cost of emergency veterinary treatment for any illness or injury occurring while the animal is the custody of the boarding establishment. The boarding establishment shall bear the expense of veterinary treatment for any injury the animal sustains while at the boarding establishment if the injury resulted from the establishment's failure, whether accidental or intentional, to provide the care required by 3.1-796.68; however, boarding establishments shall not be required to bear the cost of veterinary treatment for the injuries resulting from the animal's self-mutilation.

Animals left over thirty (30) days without contact from the owner will be disposed of in accordance with the existing laws. In the event that your pet expires while being boarded, check one of the below lines:
